3. TEACHERS CODE OF CONDUCT AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3.1 The welfare of the students is the first concern of Collinz. The teacher should:

- a. Put students' well-being first in all decisions and actions.
- b. Use your professional skills to help students grow in character, behaviour, and learning.
- c. Teach and model honesty, integrity, and kindness. Do not do anything that weakens these values.
- d. Act fairly and consistently. Handle misconduct immediately, while protecting confidentiality and the dignity of everyone involved.
- e. Use authority respectfully and according to Collinz rules, while taking into account the changing needs and rights of students.
- f. Recognise that each child is unique, and that their learning abilities and academic progress will differ.
- g. Support all students in developing their strengths and abilities to the highest level possible.
- h. Exhibit professional behaviour by showing positive examples of:
 - Preparedness
 - Communication
 - Attendance
 - Language
 - Appearance
 - Fairness
 - Punctuality
- i. Make every effort to protect students from any situation that disrupts learning or puts their health and safety at risk.
- j. Do not purposely cause students to feel embarrassed, ashamed, or humiliated.
- k. Do not use professional relationships with pupils for personal gain or advantage.
- l. Keep all student information confidential, unless sharing it is necessary for professional reasons or required by law.

3.2 Teachers' responsibility as colleagues and teammates includes:

- a. Showing respect for colleagues' roles and opinions and always maintain professional courtesy in all interactions.
- b. Supporting junior teachers and trainees in all possible ways.
- c. Respecting the authority of senior staff, while still expressing professional views when necessary.
- d. Contributing positively to the growth of education and uphold the reputation of the teaching profession.
- e. Taking responsibility for own actions and decisions and be prepared to accept consequences.
- f. Demonstrating accountability, initiative and integrity in all teaching and other professional duties, in line with the school's guidelines.
- g. Not accepting gifts, rewards or favours if they could influence, or appear to influence your professional judgement.
- h. Do not criticise or speak negatively about other teachers in front of students or the public.
- i. Senior staff should support teachers by helping them succeed in their work, keeping them informed on matters that affect them, and treating them fairly and with dignity especially when guiding them towards higher standards of efficiency and professional conduct.

3.3 Teachers' Communication Channel:

- a. Teachers must use only official school channels, such as Microsoft Teams, when communicating with students. Personal number and social media accounts (e.g. Instagram, Facebook, etc.) must not be shared with students or used for communication.
- b. Teachers should also take responsibility to prevent the discussions of sensitive personal matters in class or social media groups to avoid potential verbal abuse cases among students.

3.4 All information obtained during the course of the employment regarding any financial, personal, social, family, health or other conditions of students and/or their families is strictly confidential.

3.5 Any such matters will not be disclosed to other students, parents or third parties. Such information should also not be discussed in common area with other staff or teachers. This prohibition shall continue even after your employment at Collinz has ended.

- 3.6 Any money collected for school activities (such as clubs, books, or events) is considered school funds and must be recorded. All funds must be handed to the Admin office as soon as possible.
- 3.7 Club fees will be monitored and accounted for by the club teacher. A monthly club account ledger must be submitted to the administrative staff.
- 3.8 Teachers must submit all documents requested by the school in a timely manner. Failure to do so may lead to disciplinary action.
- 3.9 Teachers must model proper behaviour in the classroom. Professional language, actions, and emotional control are expected at all times. Abusive language or inappropriate remarks are strictly prohibited on campus.
- 3.10 Teachers are required to have their own laptop for teaching. Most classrooms have projectors to allow teachers to project information during lessons. Teachers are banned from accessing inappropriate websites, or websites that have no educational relevance or value during school hours.
- 3.11 Teachers are expected to have a handphone on silent at all times during the school day. Teachers should not be checking messages or otherwise using phones in class unless required to do so for school purposes or emergencies. Personal calls should not be answered during lessons.
- 3.12 WhatsApp is the official staff communication platform. Teachers are expected to respond promptly to ensure smooth daily operations.
- 3.13 Teachers are not allowed to use their laptop, earbuds or headphones for any non-educational purpose during school hours.
- 3.14 All forms of sexual harassment are prohibited at Collinz. Sexual harassment shall include, but not be limited to, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favours, or uninvited sexual teasing, jokes, remarks, questions, threats, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Connotations and innuendos included.
- 3.15 Teachers are strictly not allowed to create or join any student communication groups on WhatsApp, Discord, Instagram, Facebook, or any similar platforms.
- 3.16 Teachers must not take photos or videos of students during school hours for any non-school purpose. Student images must not be shared or posted on personal social media accounts. This is part of the school's safeguarding policy to protect student privacy and safety.

12.4 LESSON PLAN & REFLECTION STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE (SOP)

Lesson planning procedure:

- Subject teachers to prepare lesson timeline and place it in respective lesson plan folder.
- Teachers within the same campus, with the same subject and year will share the same timeline.
- Subject teachers to update the dates of completion for each lesson every week.
- HoDs/ coordinators to check the suitability and update of the lesson timeline.

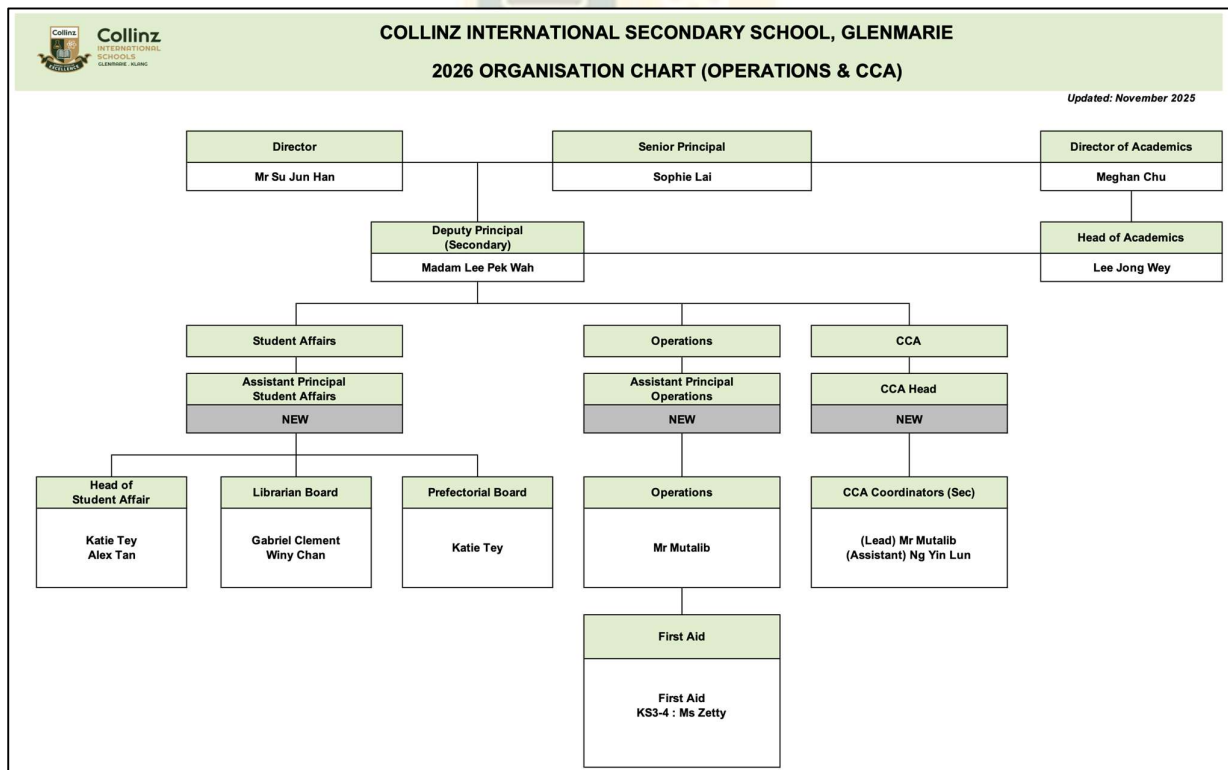

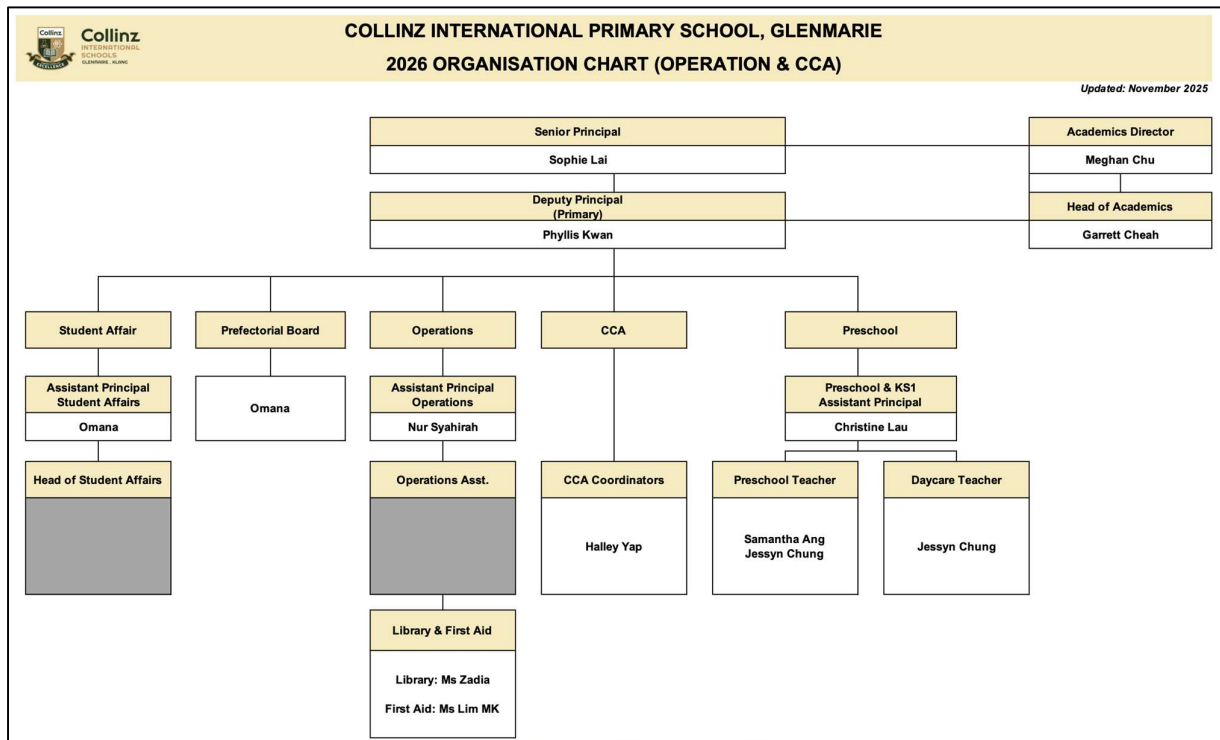

[illegible]

Lesson reflection procedure:

- To encourage teachers to reflect on their teaching strategies and improve in next lesson's delivery.
- Subject teachers to complete reflection forms after every lesson.

Lesson Reflection Form
Teacher:		Week:
Year:		Subject:
After the lesson....
Successes
Were the learning objectives achieved? What were the top two most successful learning outcomes or moments of strong student engagement? Why did they work?
Challenges
What were the reasons if the learning objectives were not achieved? What was the biggest obstacle to student learning or engagement, and what do you believe was the root cause?

Teacher's Guide: Student Discipline & Incident Management

This SOP applies to all student incidents, including:

- Behavioural misconduct
- Safety concerns
- Verbal or physical conflict
- Repeated disruption to learning
- Any incident during school activities (on or off campus)

Step 1: Incident Occurs - Teacher Action

- Minor cases, teacher can solve on their own. For major incidents, teacher to report the incident to the Student Affair Teacher.
- If unavailable, can report to Assistant Principal/ Deputy Principal.
- Teachers MUST NOT manage serious discipline cases independently.

Step 2: Investigate

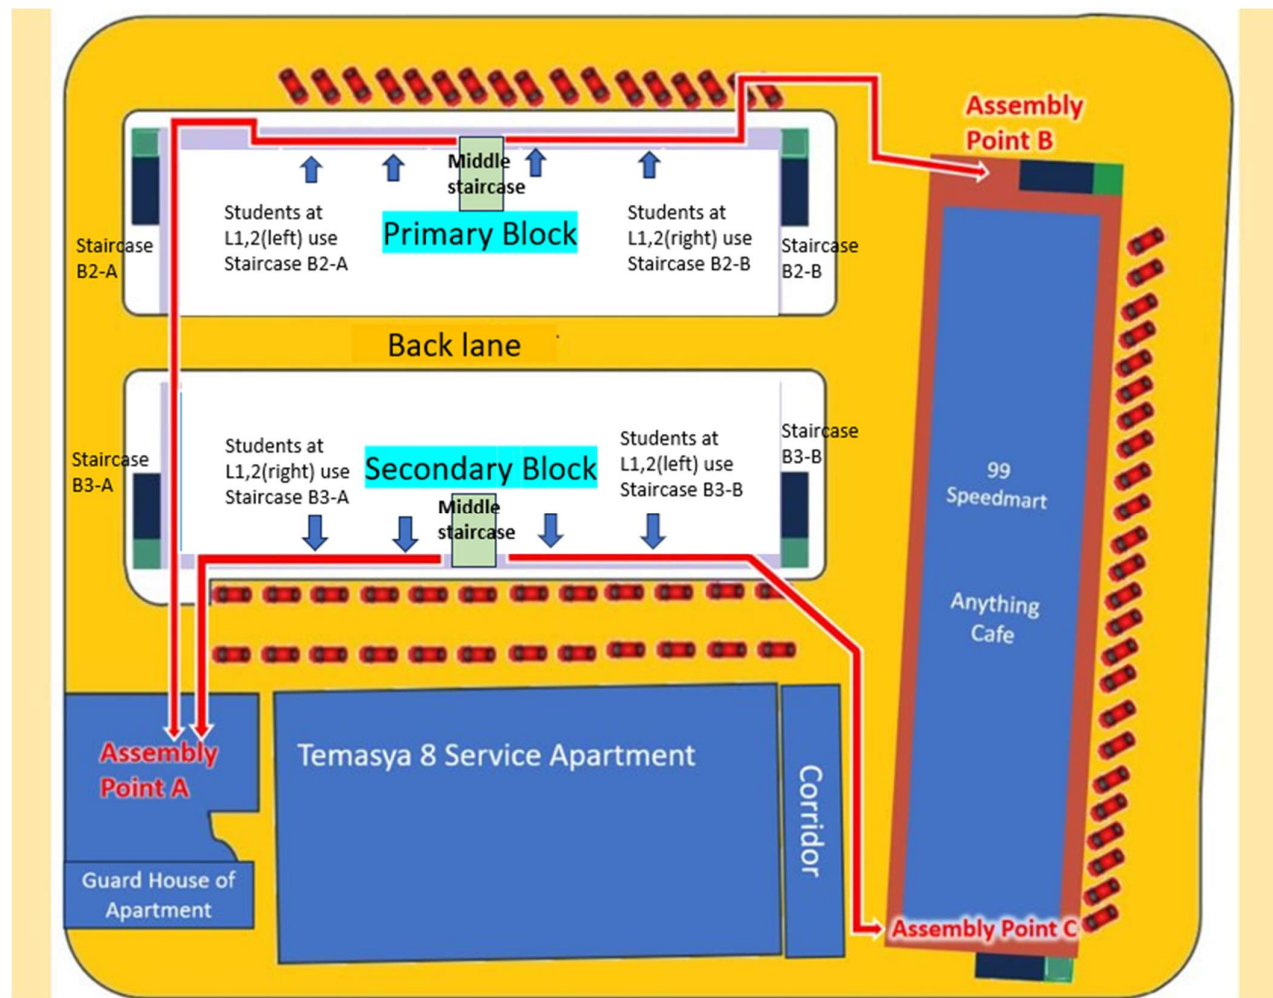

- Assistant Principal / Student Affair Teacher to investigate what happened. (Avoid meeting the students alone)

Step 3: Decision & Follow up

- (e.g. write incident report, meet up with students, inform parents etc.)
- All decision will be made by school leadership not individual teachers.

- Incident reports are required for all serious incidents, repeated misbehaviour cases and safety-related matters.
- All records are kept confidential.
- Teachers are expected to follow this SOP strictly and report incidents promptly while maintaining professional boundaries with students.
